2013 Planned Giving Client Conference

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHIES

Beverly Hyman

President, Beverly Hyman, Ph.D. & Associates

Beverly Hyman is President of Beverly Hyman, Ph.D. and Associates, a management consulting firm in business for more than two decades. The firm provides consulting and training for effective internal and external communications, leadership development, organizational development, change management, strategic planning and executive coaching. Clients include a broad spectrum from cultural institutions and universities including Harvard, Princeton, The Metropolitan Museum of Art, MOMA, and Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts, to corporations such as Con Edison, Deutsche Bank, General Electric, HSBC and Standard and Poor's to governmental organizations such as The United Nations and New York's Metropolitan Transit Authority. Dr. Hyman and her associates work on every continent, and specialize in facilitation for cross cultural and transnational teams.

Under her leadership the firm has maintained a consistent focus: to bring democracy and diversity into the workplace, to leverage the potential of employees through empowering them, and to build a culture of professional management, and visionary and inspirational leadership.

Beverly Hyman earned her Ph.D. in Media, Culture and Communication from New York University. She has been a featured speaker at national and international conferences including The UN Decade Conferences for Women, The National Human Resources Conferences, and the AFL-CIO Professional Employees Conferences. She has facilitated The Day of the International Woman at the UN. Dr. Hyman is Chair of the Board of Trustees of NYU's Steinhardt School. She is Vice President of the NYU Alumni Association, and a founding member of the university's Women's Leadership Initiative. She earned New York University's Steinhardt School Distinguished Alumni Award, and received the University's Meritorious Service Award.