

Douglas Pamplin

Vice President, Service Delivery

I grew up in the Hill District.

Mom worked at a bank, and my career started as a call center rep, downtown.

Sixteen years later, I'm the Vice President of Service Delivery with The Bank of New York Mellon.

During my 16 years with the company, I've traveled the world, earned two degrees and am back in my hometown doing what I love to do.

Thanks to my company's commitment to our community, new jobs with exciting career potential are opening up right here at The Bank of New York Mellon.
