BNY Mellon Wealth Management Appoints London-Based Client Relationship Manager

Joshi Gunpath Joins Family Office Services in the U.K.

LONDON, 11 August 2008 – BNY Mellon Wealth Management, a global leader in private wealth and family office solutions, has appointed Joshi Gunpath to its Family Office Services group. Based in London, Gunpath joins as Client Relationship Manager and will report to Jim McEleney, Managing Director of BNY Mellon Family Office Services in London.

In her new role, Gunpath will serve as the primary client contact and specialist resource across BNY Mellon Wealth Management for family offices and their advisers who are supported by the London-based team. BNY Mellon's Family Office Services group has been a valued partner to family offices for several decades in areas including investment administration, investment management and private banking and finance.

Prior to joining The Bank of New York Mellon in 2006 as investment representative in the asset servicing division, Gunpath worked as an independent financial consultant for her own company, Saiom International. Based in Germany, she marketed financial services and products to European clients. She was previously a trust administrator with Standard Bank Trust Company Ltd.

Gunpath holds a Bachelor of Science in Management Studies from the University of Mauritius and is fluent in English, French and German.

Commenting on the appointment, Jim McEleney said: "We are delighted to welcome Joshi onboard. Her experience and understanding of the unique needs of family offices will be of great benefit to her clients, as well as enhance the strength and depth of our London team."
