ITEM 9A. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Disclosure Controls and Procedures

Our management, including the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, with participation by the members of the Disclosure Committee, has responsibility for ensuring that there is an adequate and effective process for establishing, maintaining, and evaluating disclosure controls and procedures that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in our SEC reports is timely recorded, processed, summarized and reported and that information required to be disclosed by BNY Mellon is accumulated and communicated to BNY Mellon's management to allow timely decisions regarding the required disclosure. In addition, our ethics hotline can also be used by employees and others for the anonymous communication of concerns about financial controls or reporting matters.

As of Dec. 31, 2012, an evaluation was carried out under the supervision and with the participation of our management, including the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures as defined in Exchange Act Rule 13a-15(e). Based on that evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were not effective because of our processes and procedures for reporting Assets under Custody and/or Administration ("AUC/A"), as discussed under "General—Reporting of assets under custody and/or administration" in the Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations section of our Annual Report.

Subsequent to December 31, 2012, we remediated our disclosure controls and procedures over the preparation of our AUC/A. The errors relating to AUC/A are unrelated to our internal control over financial reporting. As a result of these errors, we are seeking to streamline and enhance the data collection processes and systems relating to AUC/A. We have also commenced a review of the process for reporting other information in our public filings and have begun and will continue to correct and enhance our policies and procedures going forward.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

In the ordinary course of business, we may routinely modify, upgrade or enhance our internal controls and procedures for financial reporting. There have not been any changes in our internal controls over financial reporting as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) of the Exchange Act during the fourth quarter of 2012 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.
