Cambridge blues Oxford win 159th boat race

Oxford beat Cambridge by a length and a half to win the 159th boat race on the Thames in London yesterday. This year's event passed without controversy after 2012's race was disrupted by a protester and a broken oar hampered Oxford's efforts

Capital Strength

Strong Capital Generation and Disciplined Deployment

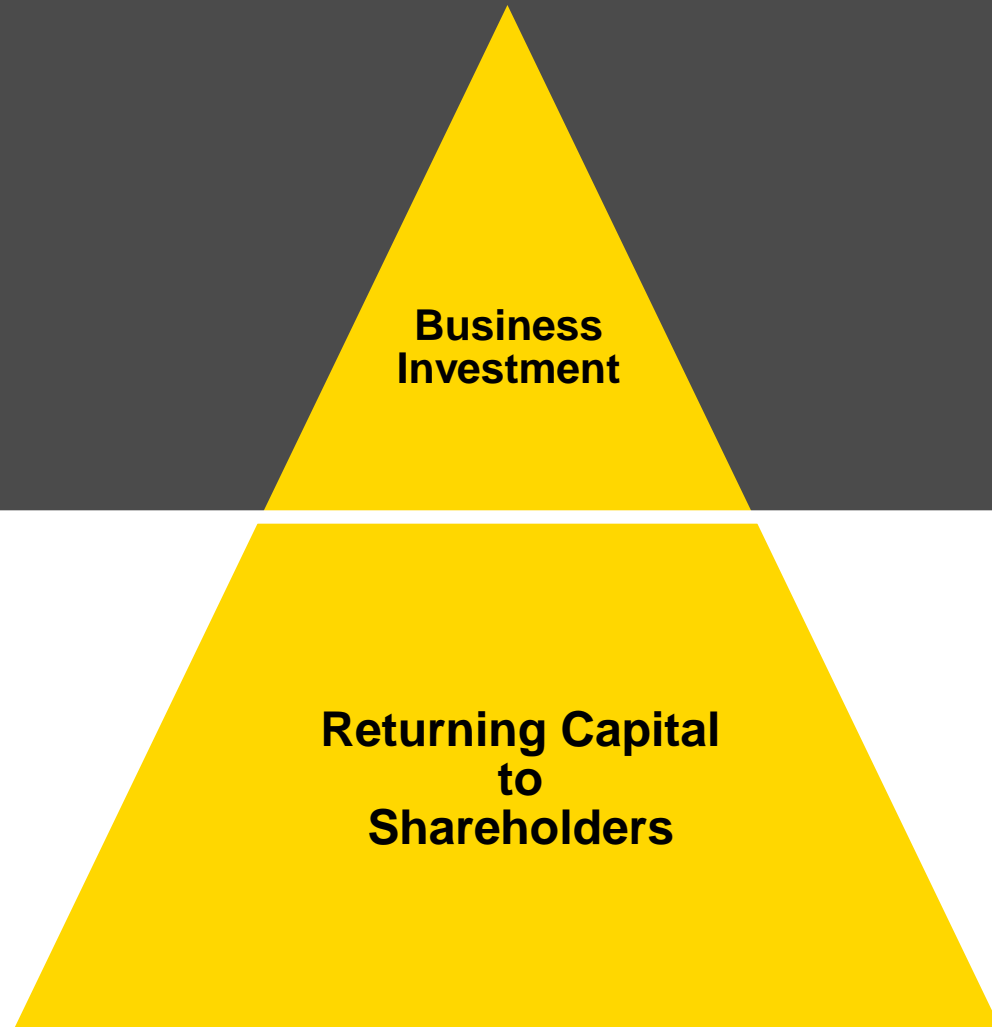

Our business model is resilient and performs well in stresses scenarios

- Fee-based revenue drives consistent earnings
 - Revenue ~80% fees / ~20% net interest revenue
- Relatively lower exposure to equity market fluctuations
 - AUC/A mix: ~65% fixed income and ~35% equity
 - AUM mix: ~39% fixed income; ~35% equity; ~19% money-market; and ~7% alternative/other
- Excellent balance sheet credit quality
 - Investment Securities portfolio at September 30, 2013
 - ~59% agencies and treasuries
 - ~95% investment grade
 - High quality loan portfolio
 - Primarily investment grade and short-term in nature
 - Relatively low exposure to consumer risks
- Our business model does not require significant growth in risk-weighted assets in order to drive our underlying business

¹ Represents a non-GAAP measure. See Appendix for a reconciliation. Additional disclosure regarding this measure and other non-GAAP measures are available in the Corporation's reports filed with the SEC, including our Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2013, available at www.bnymellon.com/investorrelations. ² Tangible capital in 1Q13 and 3Q13 adjusted for a net charge (benefit) related to the disallowance of certain foreign tax credits. See Appendix for reconciliation. ³ Estimated Basel III Tier 1 common equity ratio is based on our interpretation of and expectations regarding the Final Capital Rules released by the Federal Reserve on July 2, 2013, on a fully phased-in basis, calculated under the Standardized Approach.

Disciplined Capital Deployment

Size of triangle components for illustrative purposes only

- Growth initiatives

Our Business Model Drives Value

- ✓ Business mix is well diversified across clients, services and geographies
- ✓ Global market leadership
- ✓ Benefiting from globalization and long-term growth of financial assets
- ✓ Broadest capabilities of traditional trust bank competitors, delivering holistic client solutions
- ✓ Generates significant levels of capital that can be returned to shareholders
- ✓ Building on a culture of quality and continuous process improvement
- ✓ Strong relative performance in challenging markets; significant upside when markets normalize

Cautionary Statement

A number of statements in our presentations, the accompanying slides and the responses to your questions are “forward-looking statements.” These statements relate to, among other things, The Bank of New York Mellon Corporation’s (the “Corporation”) expectations regarding: our opportunities for future growth; the success of our expense control efforts; our capital position and capital deployment plans; the expansion of our Wealth Management function; our market distribution improvement plan; our global investments presence; our foreign exchange capabilities; outsourcing opportunities; our ability to leverage existing client relationship; our ability to strengthen the recognition of our brand; our ability to recruit talent; Basel III and our estimated Basel III Tier 1 common equity ratio; the success of our business model; driving a return on our investments in Client Service Delivery and Client Technology Solutions; our high level strategic goals for Investment Services, Client Service Delivery and Client Technology Solutions; our Operational Excellence Initiatives, including progress and the timeline to meet our target; our broader transformation process (Transforming for Success); and cross-business solutions and expected financial benefit; our ability to create profitability and expense savings; our business excellence plan; our continuous process improvement plan; strategic priorities for client technology solutions; and statements regarding the Corporation’s aspirations, as well as the Corporation’s overall plans, strategies, goals, objectives, expectations, estimates, intentions, targets, opportunities and initiatives. These forward-looking statements are based on assumptions that involve risks and uncertainties and that are subject to change based on various important factors (some of which are beyond the Corporation’s control).

Actual results may differ materially from those expressed or implied as a result of the factors described under “Forward Looking Statements” and “Risk Factors” in the Corporation’s 2012 Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2012 (the “2012 Annual Report”), and in other filings of the Corporation with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”). Such forward-looking statements speak only as of December 11, 2013, and the Corporation undertakes no obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect events or circumstances after that date or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.

Non-GAAP Measures: In this presentation we may discuss some non-GAAP measures in detailing the Corporation’s performance. We believe these measures are useful to the investment community in analyzing the financial results and trends of ongoing operations. We believe they facilitate comparisons with prior periods and reflect the principal basis on which our management monitors financial performance. Additional disclosures relating to non-GAAP measures are contained in the Corporation’s reports filed with the SEC, including the Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2013, available at www.bnymellon.com/investorrelations.
