1. Organization

SkyBridge Multi-Adviser Hedge Fund Portfolios LLC (formerly known as Citigroup Alternative Investments Multi-Adviser Hedge Fund Portfolios LLC) (the “Company”) was organized as a Delaware limited liability company on August 16, 2002. The Company is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 as amended (the “1940 Act”), as a closed-end, non-diversified management investment company. The Company is also registered under the Securities Act of 1933 as amended (the “1933 Act”).

The investment objective of the Company is to achieve capital appreciation principally through investing in investment funds (“Investment Funds”) managed by third-party investment managers (“Investment Managers”) that employ a variety of alternative investment strategies. These investment strategies allow Investment Managers the flexibility to use leveraged and/or short-sale positions to take advantage of perceived inefficiencies across the global markets, often referred to as “alternative” strategies. Because the Investment Funds following alternative investment strategies are often described as hedge funds, the investment program of the Company can be described as a fund of hedge funds.

Shares of the Company (“Shares”) are sold to eligible investors (referred to as “Shareholders”). The minimum initial investment in the Company from each Shareholder is $25,000; the minimum additional investment is $10,000.

SkyBridge Capital II, LLC (the “Adviser”), a Delaware limited liability company, serves as the Company’s investment adviser. The Adviser is registered as an investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended, and, among other things, is responsible for the allocation of the Company’s assets to various Investment Funds. Under the Company’s governing documents, the Company has delegated substantially all authority to oversee the management of the operations and assets of the Company to the Board of Directors (each member a “Director” and collectively, the “Board of Directors”).

2. Significant Accounting Policies

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“GAAP”) and are expressed in United States dollars. The Company is considered an investment company under GAAP and follows the accounting and reporting guidance applicable to investment companies in the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) 946, Financial Services – Investment Companies (“ASC 946”). The following is a summary of significant accounting and reporting policies used in preparing the financial statements.

a. Portfolio Valuation

The Company has formal valuation procedures approved by the Board of Directors. The Adviser performs its duties under the procedures principally through an internal valuation body, which meets at least monthly. The Valuation Committee, which is under the purview of the Board of

September 30, 2016 (Unaudited)

Directors, receives valuation reports from the Adviser on a quarterly basis and determines if valuation procedures are operating as expected and the outcomes are reliable.

Investments in Investment Funds are subject to the terms of the respective limited partnership agreements, limited liability company agreements, offering memoranda and such negotiated “side letter” or similar arrangements as the Adviser may have entered into with the Investment Fund on behalf of the Company. The Company’s investments in the Investment Funds are carried at fair value as determined by the Company’s interest in the net assets of each Investment Fund using net asset value, or its equivalent, (“NAV”) as a practical expedient or as otherwise determined in accordance with the Company’s valuation procedures.

Prior to investing in any Investment Fund, the Adviser will conduct a due diligence review of the valuation methodology utilized by the Investment Fund and will perform ongoing monitoring due diligence. The results of ongoing, post-investment diligence reviews are used to assess the reasonableness of continued reliance on the valuations reported by the Investment Funds. NAV supplied by Investment Funds are net of management and performance incentive fees or other allocations payable to the Investment Funds’ managers as required by the Investment Funds’ agreements. Each Investment Manager to which the Adviser allocates assets will charge the Company, as an investor in an underlying Investment Fund, an asset-based fee, and some or all of the Investment Managers will receive performance-based compensation in the form of an incentive fee. The asset-based fees of the Investment Managers are generally expected to range from 1% to 4% annually of the net assets under their management and the incentive fee is generally expected to range from 10% to 25% of net profits annually. These management and incentive fees are accounted for in the valuations of the Investment Funds and are neither included in the management fee reflected in the Statement of Operations nor in expenses and net investment loss ratios reflected in Financial Highlights.

The Company may invest in Investment Funds that may designate certain investments within those Investment Funds, typically those that are especially illiquid and/or hard to value, as “special situation” (often called “Side-Pocket”) investments with additional redemption limitations. Such a Side-Pocket is, in effect, similar to a private equity fund that requires its investors to remain invested for the duration of the fund and distributes returns on the investment only when liquid assets are generated within the fund, typically through the sale of the fund’s illiquid assets in exchange for cash.

As a general matter, the fair value of the Company’s investment in an Investment Fund represents the amount that the Company can reasonably expect to receive if the Company’s investment was sold at its reported NAV. Determination of fair value involves subjective judgment and amounts ultimately realized may vary from estimated values. The Investment Funds generally provide for periodic redemptions ranging from monthly to quarterly, subject to various lock-up on liquidity provisions and redemption gates. Investment Funds generally require advance notice of a Shareholder’s intent to redeem its interest, and may, depending on the Investment Funds’ governing agreements, deny or delay a redemption request. The Company considers whether a liquidity discount on any Investment Fund should be taken due to redemption restrictions or suspensions by the Investment Fund. No liquidity discount was applied when determining the fair value of the Investment Funds as of September 30, 2016. The underlying investments of each Investment Fund are accounted for at fair value as described in each Investment Fund's financial statements. The Investment Funds may invest a portion of their assets in restricted securities and other investments that are illiquid.

September 30, 2016 (Unaudited)

b. Net Asset Value Determination

The net asset value of the Company is determined as of the close of business at the end of each month in accordance with the valuation principles set forth below or as may be determined from time to time pursuant to policies established by the Board of Directors.

Retroactive adjustments to the Company's net asset value might be made after the valuation date, based on information which becomes available after that valuation date, which could impact the net asset value per share at which Shareholders purchase or sell Company Shares. For example, fiscal year-end net asset values of an Investment Fund may be revised as a result of a year-end audit performed by the independent auditors of that Investment Fund. Other adjustments to the Company's net asset value may also occur from time to time, such as from the misapplication by the Company or its agents of the valuation policies described in the Company's valuation procedures.

Retroactive adjustments to the Company's net asset value, which are caused by adjustments to the Investment Funds values or by a misapplication of the Company's valuation policies, that are able to be made within 90 days of the valuation date(s) to which the adjustment would apply will be made automatically unless determined to be immaterial. Other potential retroactive adjustments, regardless of whether their impact increases or decreases the Company's net asset value, will be made only if they both (i) are caused by a misapplication of the Company's valuation policies and (ii) deemed to be material. All retroactive adjustments are reported to the Company's Valuation Committee and to affected Shareholders.

The Company follows a policy which permits revisions to the number of Shares purchased or sold by Shareholders due to retroactive adjustments made under the circumstances described above which occur within 90 days of the valuation date. In circumstances where a retroactive adjustment is not made under the circumstances described above, Shares purchased or sold by Shareholders will not be adjusted. As a result, to the extent that the subsequent impact of the event which was not adjusted adversely affects the Company's net asset value, the outstanding Shares of the Company will be adversely affected by prior repurchases made at a net asset value per Share higher than the adjusted value. Conversely, any increases in net asset value per Share resulting from such subsequent impact will be to the benefit of the holders of the outstanding Shares of the Company and to the detriment of Shareholders who previously had their Shares repurchased at a net asset value per Share lower than the post-impact value. New Shareholders may be affected in a similar way, because the same principles apply to the purchase of Shares.

c. Income Recognition and Expenses

Interest income is recognized on an accrual basis as earned. Expenses are recognized on an accrual basis as incurred. Income, expenses and realized and unrealized gains and losses are recorded monthly.

September 30, 2016 (Unaudited)

The change in an Investment Fund's net asset value is included in net change in unrealized appreciation/depreciation on investments in Investment Funds on the Statement of Operations. The Company accounts for realized gains and losses from Investment Fund transactions based on the pro-rata ratio of the fair value and cost of the underlying investment at the date of redemption. For tax purposes, the Company uses the cost recovery method with respect to sales of Investment Funds that are classified as partnerships for U.S. federal tax purposes, and the first-in-first-out method with respect to sales of Investment Funds that are classified as corporations for U.S. federal tax purposes.

The Company bears all expenses incurred in the course of its operations, including, but not limited to, the following: all costs and expenses related to portfolio transactions and positions for the Company's account; professional fees; costs of insurance; registration expenses; and expenses of meetings of the Board of Directors.

d. Income Taxes

The Company became a corporation that is taxed as a regulated investment company ("RIC") as of October 1, 2005. The Company operated as a partnership from inception through September 30, 2005.

It is the Company's intention to meet the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code applicable to RICs and distribute substantially all of its taxable net investment income and capital gains, if any, to Shareholders each year. While the Company intends to distribute substantially all of its taxable net investment income and capital gains, in the manner necessary to avoid imposition of the 4% excise tax, it is possible that some excise tax will be incurred.

The Company has analyzed tax positions taken or expected to be taken in the course of preparing the Company's tax return for all open tax years and has concluded, as of September 30, 2016, no provision for income tax is required in the Company's financial statements. The Company's federal and state income and federal excise tax returns for tax years for which the applicable statutes of limitations have not expired are subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service and state departments of revenue. The Company recognizes tax related interest and penalties, if any, as income tax expense in the Statement of Operations. During the period ended September 30, 2016, the Company did not incur any interest or penalties.

e. Cash

Cash represents cash on deposit. Cash held at financial institutions may exceed the amount insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and does not believe it is exposed to any significant credit risk on such bank deposits.

f. Use of Estimates and Reclassifications

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management of the Company to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Changes in the economic environment, financial markets, and any other parameters used in determining these estimates could cause actual results to differ materially.

September 30, 2016 (Unaudited)

3. Fair Value Disclosures

The Company uses the NAV, as a practical expedient, provided by Investment Funds as its measure of fair value of an investment in an Investment Fund when (i) the Company's investment does not have a readily determinable fair value and (ii) the NAV of the Investment Fund is calculated in a manner consistent with the measurement principles of investment company accounting, including measurement of the underlying investments at fair value. In evaluating the level at which the fair value measurement of the Company's investments have been classified, the Company has assessed factors including, but not limited to, price transparency, the ability to redeem at NAV at the measurement date and the existence or absence of certain redemption restrictions at the measurement date.

In accordance with the authoritative guidance on fair value measurements and disclosures under GAAP, the Company discloses the fair value of its investments in a hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure the fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to valuations based upon unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurement) and the lowest priority to valuations based upon unobservable inputs that are significant to the valuation (Level 3 measurement). The guidance establishes three levels of fair value as listed below.

Level 1- Inputs that reflect unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Company has the ability to access at the measurement date;

Level 2- Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability either directly or indirectly, including inputs in markets that are not considered to be active;

Level 3- Inputs that are unobservable.

The notion of unobservable inputs is intended to allow for situations in which there is little, if any, market activity for the asset or liability at the measurement date. Under Level 3, the owner of an asset must determine valuation based on their own assumptions about what market participants would take into account in determining the fair value of the asset, using the best information available.

The inputs or methodology used for valuing securities are not necessarily an indication of the risk associated with investing in those securities.

A financial instrument's level within the fair value hierarchy is based upon the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. However, the determination of what constitutes "observable" requires significant judgment by the Adviser. The Adviser considers observable data to be market data which is readily available, regularly distributed or updated, reliable and verifiable, not proprietary, and provided by independent sources that are actively involved in the relevant market.

The following is a summary of the investment strategies, their liquidity and redemption notice periods and any restrictions on the liquidity provisions of the investments in Investment Funds held by the Company as of September 30, 2016. Investment Funds with no current redemption restrictions may be subject to future gates, lock-up provisions or other restrictions, in accordance with their offering documents which would be considered in fair value measurement and disclosure.

Directional Equity funds take long and short stock positions. The manager may attempt to profit from both long and short stock positions independently, or profit from the relative outperformance of long positions against short positions. The stock picking and portfolio construction process is usually based on bottom-up fundamental stock analysis, but may also include top-down macro-based views, market trends and sentiment factors. Directional equity managers may specialize by region (e.g., global, U.S., Europe or Japan) or by sector. No assurance can be given that the managers will be able to correctly locate profitable trading opportunities, and such opportunities may be adversely affected by unforeseen events. In addition, short selling creates the risk of loss if the security that has been sold short appreciates in value. 100 percent of the investment Funds in this strategy are illiquid side pocket investments with suspended redemptions.

Directional Macro strategies require well developed risk management procedures due to the frequent employment of leverage. Investment managers may trade futures, options on future contracts and foreign exchange contracts and may trade in diversified markets or focus on one market sector. Two types of strategies employed by directional macro managers are discretionary and systematic trading. Discretionary trading strategies seek to dynamically allocate capital to relatively short-term trading opportunities around the world. Directional strategies (seeking to participate in rising and declining markets when the trend appears strong and justified by fundamentals) and relative value approaches (establishing long positions in undervalued instruments and short positions in related instruments believed to be over valued) or in “spread” positions in an attempt to capture changes in the relationships between instruments. Systematic trading strategies generally rely on computerized trading systems or models to identify and capitalize on trends in financial and commodity markets. This systematic approach allows investment managers to seek to take advantage of price patterns in very large number of markets. The trading models may be focused on technical or fundamental factors or combination of factors. 100 percent of the Investment Funds in this strategy are illiquid side pocket investments with suspended redemptions.

Event Driven strategies involve investing in opportunities created by significant transactional events such as spin-offs, mergers and acquisitions, bankruptcies, recapitalizations and share buybacks. Event driven strategies include “merger arbitrage” and “distressed securities”. Generally, the Investment Funds within this strategy have monthly to annually liquidity, subject to a 30 to 90 day notice period. Investment Funds in this strategy, representing less than 1 percent in this strategy are illiquid or side pocket investments with suspended redemptions. Investment Funds representing 4 percent in this strategy have hard lock provisions to be lifted after 12 months. Approximately 4 percent in this strategy are term vehicles with multi-year hard locks subject to periodic distributions. Approximately 51 percent of the Investment Funds in this strategy have gated redemptions, which are estimated to be lifted after 12 months. The remaining approximately 40 percent of the Investment Funds in this strategy can be redeemed with no restrictions as of the measurement date.

September 30, 2016 (Unaudited)

Relative Value strategies seek to take advantage of specific pricing anomalies, while also seeking to maintain minimal exposure to systematic market risk. This may be achieved by purchasing one security previously believed to be undervalued, while selling short another security perceived to be overvalued. Relative value arbitrage strategies include equity market neutral, statistical arbitrage, convertible arbitrage, and fixed income arbitrage. Some investment managers classified as multi-strategy relative value arbitrage use a combination of these substrategies. Generally, the Investment Funds within this strategy have monthly to quarterly liquidity, subject to a 30 to 90 day notice period. Investment Funds in this strategy, representing less than 1 percent in this strategy, are illiquid side pocket investments with suspended redemptions. Approximately 30 percent of the Investment Funds in this strategy have gated redemptions, which are estimated to be lifted after 12 months. The remaining approximately 70 percent of the Investment Funds in this strategy can be redeemed with no restrictions as of the measurement date.

The Company follows the authoritative guidance under GAAP on determining fair value when the volume and level of activity for the asset or liability have significantly changed and identifying transactions that are not orderly. Accordingly, if the Company determines that either the volume and/or level of activity for an asset or liability has significantly changed (from normal conditions for that asset or liability) or price quotations or observable inputs are not associated with orderly transactions, increased analysis and management judgment will be required to estimate fair value. Valuation techniques such as an income approach might be appropriate to supplement or replace a market approach in those circumstances.

The guidance also provides a list of factors to determine whether there has been a significant change in relation to normal market activity. Regardless of the valuation technique and inputs used, the objective for the fair value measurement in those circumstances is unchanged from what it would be if markets were operating at normal activity levels and/or transactions were orderly; that is, to determine the current exit price.

In May 2015, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update (“ASU”) No. 2015-07 (“ASU 2015-07”), Fair Value Measurement (Topic 820): Disclosure for Investments in Certain Entities that Calculate Net Asset Value per Share (or Its Equivalent). The ASU 2015-07 amendments remove the previous requirement to categorize all investments for which fair value is measured using the NAV per share practical expedient. The amendments also remove the requirement to make certain disclosures for all investments that are eligible to be measured at fair value using the NAV per share practical expedient. The amendments apply to reporting entities that elect to measure the fair value of an investment through the NAV per share (or its equivalent) practical expedient (common practice for investment companies). ASU 2015-07 is effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2015, and early adoption is permitted. As permitted, the Company has elected to adopt ASU 2015-07 commencing with its March 31, 2016 financial statements. The Company’s investments in Investment Funds carried at fair value in the amount of $6,080,567,549 have not been categorized in the fair value hierarchy.

The Company has unfunded capital commitments in the amount of $29,200,000 as of September 30, 2016.

The Adviser acts primarily to evaluate and select Investment Managers, to allocate assets, to establish and apply risk management procedures, and to monitor overall investment performance. In consideration for such services, the Company pays the Adviser a monthly management fee of 0.125% (1.50% annually) based on end of month Shareholders' capital.

Hastings Capital Group, LLC, an affiliate of the Adviser, has been appointed to serve as the Company's principal underwriter (the "Principal Underwriter") with authority to sell Shares directly and to appoint placement agents to assist the Principal Underwriter in selling Shares. The Company has entered into agreements with third parties to act as additional placement agents for the Company's Shares. Placement fees ranging from 0% to 3% of a Shareholder's subscription amount may be paid to the placement agents by the Shareholder. Placement fees do not constitute a capital contribution by the Shareholder to the Company and will not be part of the assets of the Company. In addition to the placement fee paid by Shareholders, the Adviser or its affiliates, including the Principal Underwriter, may pay from their own resources additional compensation to the Placement Agents in connection with placement of Shares or servicing of investors. As to each investor referred by a Placement Agent to date, such additional compensation approximates 0.75% to 0.85% of the value of the Shares held by the investor per annum.

The Adviser and BNY Mellon Investment Servicing (US) Inc. ("BNYM") have separate agreements with the Company and act as co-administrators to the Company. BNYM provides certain accounting, recordkeeping, tax and investor related services and charges fees for their services based on a rate applied to the average Shareholders' capital and are charged directly to the Company. Total amount expensed relating to administration services provided by BNYM for the period ended September 30, 2016 was $3,092,183 and are included in administration fees on the Statement of Operations.

The Adviser provides a variety of administrative and shareholder services under an administrative services agreement with the Company. While these services previously were subject to a fee, they have in recent years been provided by the Adviser on a no-fee basis. Effective January 1, 2014, the Adviser and the Company's Board of Directors agreed to amend the agreement and reinstate a fee. The Adviser is paid an annual fee, payable monthly and calculated as a percentage of the Company's net assets as follows: 0.05% of the Company's first $5 billion of average net assets, and 0.04% of the Company's average net assets in excess of $5 billion. Total amount expensed relating to administrative services provided by the Adviser for the period ended September 30, 2016 was $1,584,949 and are included in administration fees on the Statement of Operations of which $262,131 remains payable and is listed as Adviser fees payable on the Statement of Assets and Liabilities.

10. Industry Developments

In April 2016, the United States Department of Labor (“DOL”) released the final rulemaking (the “Fiduciary Rule”) relating to its long-running effort to overhaul the fee and revenue sharing arrangements between financial services organizations and their retail retirement clients (principally Individual Retirement Account (“IRA”) investors and other retail retirement clients whose assets are subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (“ERISA”). The Fiduciary Rule will subject many of the investment and asset management recommendations from broker dealers, banks and other financial services organizations to IRAs and other retail retirement clients that are not subject to ERISA to the fiduciary standards and remedies under ERISA.

The Fiduciary Rule will become applicable to financial services organizations on April 10, 2017. However, in response to implementation and feasibility concerns raised by the financial services industry, the DOL has delayed full compliance with certain provisions of the Fiduciary Rule until January 2018.

A significant percentage of investors in the Company invest through IRAs or similar tax-advantaged savings accounts. The Fiduciary Rule is expected to change the relationship between financial advisers and investors of this type, with uncertain impacts. One possibility is that investors investing through IRAs or similar tax-advantaged savings accounts may be discouraged from continuing to hold interests in vehicles like the Company, whether because of its complexity, cost structure or other considerations. Some restructuring of the Company or its expense arrangements ultimately may become advisable to address changing needs of those investors and their financial advisers, but no assurance can be given that any such restructuring would adequately address any issues that may arise. The Fiduciary Rule may also increase the litigation risks to financial services organizations in providing investment and other services to retail retirement clients because the rule subjects advice to IRAs and similar tax-advantaged savings accounts that are not subject to ERISA’s remedial provisions.

11. Subsequent Events

Management has evaluated the impact of all subsequent events on the Company through the date the financial statements were issued, and has determined that there were no subsequent events requiring recognition or disclosure in the financial statements.

INVESTMENT ADVISORY AGREEMENT
(UNAUDITED)

The Investment Advisory Agreement provides that the Adviser is responsible, subject to the supervision of the Board of Directors, for formulating a continuing investment program for the Company. The Adviser makes all decisions as to the Company's purchases and withdrawals of interests in Investment Funds. The Investment Advisory Agreement is terminable without penalty upon 60 days' prior written notice by the Board of Directors to the Adviser and to the Shareholders, by vote of a majority, as defined by the 1940 Act, of the outstanding voting securities of the Company, or by the Adviser upon 60 days' prior written notice. Approved by shareholders on July 30, 2010, for an initial two-year term, thereafter, the Investment Advisory Agreement continues in effect from year to year if the continuance is approved annually by the Board of Directors (including a majority of the Independent Directors). The Investment Advisory Agreement provides that it will terminate automatically in the event of its "assignment," as defined by the 1940 Act and the rules under that Act.

The Investment Advisory Agreement provides that, in the absence of willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of its obligations to the Company, the Adviser and any partner, director, officer or employee of the Adviser, or any of their affiliates, executors, heirs, assigns, successors or other legal representatives, will not be liable to the Company for any error of judgment, for any mistake of law or for any act or omission by the person in connection with the performance of services to the Company. The Investment Advisory Agreement also provides for indemnification, to the fullest extent permitted by law, by the Company, the Adviser or any partner, director, officer or employee of the Adviser, and any of their affiliates, executors, heirs, assigns, successors or other legal representatives, against any liability or expense to which the person may be liable that arises in connection with the performance of services to the Company, so long as the liability or expense is not incurred by reason of the person's willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of duty.

The Investment Advisory Agreement was approved by the Board of Directors most recently on June 29, 2016. As of the date of this Semi-Annual Report, the Board of Directors anticipates next considering the Investment Advisory Agreement on or before June 30, 2017. In approving the Investment Advisory Agreement in June 2016, the Board of Directors considered the Company's existing relationship with the Adviser and its affiliates, as well as the ongoing commitment of the Adviser to the Company. The Directors also considered the Company's investment performance to date and the resources and experience of the Adviser, its affiliates and the individuals dedicated to the Company's investment program. In this regard, the Directors reviewed materials relevant to the investment performance of the Company and the Adviser, as well as various materials describing the Adviser and its personnel. They evaluated these factors in light of the nature, extent and quality of the services provided by the Adviser, the total compensation received, directly or indirectly (through soft dollar arrangements or other service benefits, to the extent applicable), by the Adviser from the Company and the total cost to the Company of using the Adviser's services, taking into account both expenses borne by the Adviser and those that may be passed to the Company by the Adviser. In addition, they compared competitive prices for comparable services, reviewing fee information for a variety of investment funds similar in structure to the Company. Among other things, the Directors determined the Adviser's fee is competitive to those charged by investment advisers to similar funds (when, if applicable, the fees charged to those other funds were adjusted to reflect the effects of the incentive compensation to which certain of those funds were subject) and the Company's expense ratio was reasonable given Company net assets. The Directors noted that performance had been strong, providing stable absolute returns and that estimated profitability appeared reasonable. As to economies of scale, the Adviser and the Board previously considered breakpoints with respect to the advisory fee and will consider breakpoints in the future should economies of scale for the Adviser be achieved on a meaningful level. To date, economies of scale from increases in assets under management have been shared with shareholders through investment in personnel and services by the Adviser in support of the Company and through reductions in the Company's total operating expense ratios relative to those that prevailed when the Company's net assets were lower. The Directors also determined the Adviser's resources and experience are satisfactory overall, and that sufficient resources and personnel are assigned to the Adviser's management of the Company. Accordingly, they concluded continuing the Investment Advisory Agreement served the interests of the Company and the Shareholders.
