What comes to mind when you think of Corporate Trust?

In the simplest terms, acting as trustee and making payments on a bond or loan.

Providing agency services, which might include acting as administration agent or escrow agent.

Holding collateral, whether that's cash or assets.

Providing issuer and investor reporting.

Working globally to support Latin American issuers

We support Latin American issuers seeking cross-border funding.

We work with all major clearing systems, such as the DTC, Euroclear, and ClearStream.

We work with the Luxembourg, Irish, and Singapore stock exchanges to list the securities.

What makes a better trustee or agent?

The ability and willingness of a team...

To be able to sit down and engage with a client and help them translate their financing needs or aspirations...

Into an attractive global market solution that actually works.
What makes us different?

So whether the client is a corporation, a government, a bank, a pension plan, or an insurance company...

Knowing that they can rely on the collective strength of the team...

Combined with the strength of the organization and its balance sheet...

Makes all the difference.

We offer a team of market-leading professionals who have the ability to leverage the best that the institution has to offer, along with skills gained over multiple years in multiple markets to deliver the best outcomes.

Years of experience has allowed us to build up trust and credibility with our clients and advisors against the backdrop of an unwavering commitment of the firm for these markets.

We've worked on every landmark sovereign and project finance transaction in our region in the past decade.

We manage the cash and assets to the entire life cycle globally, and help issuers with the structure and the reporting that the market, rating agencies and investors demand.

All these things combined...

Make us a compelling choice...

For our client base...

Time and time again.
