Cautionary Statement

A number of statements in our presentations, the accompanying slides and the responses to your questions are “forward-looking statements.” These statements relate to, among other things, The Bank of New York Mellon Corporation’s (the “Corporation”) expectations regarding: positioning for earnings growth; investments in organic and revenue growth opportunities; aggressively managing costs and impact and upside of normalizing conditions; enterprise expense savings; continuous process improvements; actions to drive value for clients and shareholders; regulatory environment; capital generation and deployment; dividends and share repurchases; financial goals in the current environment and normalizing environment on an operating basis; and statements regarding the Corporation's aspirations, as well as the Corporation’s overall plans, strategies, goals, objectives, expectations, estimates, intentions, targets, opportunities and initiatives. These forward-looking statements are based on assumptions that involve risks and uncertainties and that are subject to change based on various important factors (some of which are beyond the Corporation’s control).

Actual results may differ materially from those expressed or implied as a result of the factors described under “Forward Looking Statements” and “Risk Factors” in the Corporation’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013 (the “2013 Annual Report”), and in other filings of the Corporation with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”). Such forward looking statements speak only as of November 20, 2014, and the Corporation undertakes no obligation to update any forward looking statement to reflect events or circumstances after that date or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events. For additional information regarding the Corporation, please refer to the Corporation's SEC filings available at www.bnymellon.com/investorrelations.

Non-GAAP Measures: In this presentation we may discuss some non-GAAP adjusted measures in detailing the Corporation’s performance. We believe these measures are useful to the investment community in analyzing the financial results and trends of ongoing operations. We believe they facilitate comparisons with prior periods and reflect the principal basis on which our management monitors financial performance. Additional disclosures relating to non-GAAP adjusted measures are contained in the Corporation’s reports filed with the SEC, including the 2013 Annual Report and our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2014, available at www.bnymellon.com/investorrelations.
