

LEAD | PEOPLE REPORT 2017

Dinesh Deo, Chief Executive Officer, BNY Mellon India

Jung In (JI) Kang, Head of Relationship Management, APAC

Joe Duffy, Head of Global Client Management, EMEA

Nicole Fouron, Head of Planning & Business Admin, Asset Servicing Americas

March 2017

Dinesh Deo: The greatest challenge for tomorrow's leaders is going to be the dynamic world we live in. The technology today is changing so fast. Leaders will have a tough time to adapt themselves, up-skill themselves to be ready for the technology of tomorrow.

JI Kang: Leadership has become even more important as we're in an age of disruption. We're in a position to harness the power of emerging technologies to supercharge our progress.

Joe Duffy: Through collaboration with fintechs in many different parts of the world, what we are able to do is bring different thinking to our clients and help them think about what they do day in and day out differently.

Nicole Fouron: As leaders, it's up to us to harness the collective power of cross-generational diverse teams to ensure success for our company for another 200 years

BNY Mellon is the corporate brand of The Bank of New York Mellon Corporation and may be used as a generic term to reference the corporation as a whole and/or its various subsidiaries generally. BNY Mellon will not be responsible for updating any information contained within this material and opinions and information contained herein are subject to change without notice. BNY Mellon assumes no direct or consequential liability for any errors in or reliance upon this material. This material may not be reproduced or disseminated in any form without the prior written permission of BNY Mellon.

